History

Pyeongchang National Youth Center of Korea

is the first national youth activity facility established on a large site of 478,00m<sup>2</sup> in 1998. The center is operated by the Korea Youth Work Agency, a public organization affiliated to the Ministry of Gender Equality and Family, and is a facility that specializes in outdoor activities and can always be freely used by youth, families, youth organizations.

Youth Activities

The school's unit camp, youth specialized camp, underprivileged youth supporting camps, and other projects are operated as activities that support the development of the core capacity of young people aged 9-24 to realize one of the Fifth Basic Youth Policy Plan (2013-2017) visions and goals.

'Happy and Healthy Youth with Core Capacities.'

Vision and Core Tasks of the Youth Policy

Policy Vision	Dreaming Youth, Family with Hope, Bright Future of Society
Policy Goal	To Reinforce the Competence of the Youth and to Build Healthy and Sound Environment for the Youth

※ Citation of The Ministry of Gender Equality and Family Youth Policy of Korea.

Family Activities

Pyeongchang outdoor festival, family camp, and other activities are operated to reinforce the cohesiveness, communication and intimacy among family members. It also allows families to create precious memories through various activities, such as out door activities, ecology education, and camping in the great nature of Pyeongchang.

Training Courses for Youth Workers

Pyeongchang National Youth Center of Korea is engaged in the implementation of various training programs in order to improve expertise in the field of outdoor activities for youth workers. Examples of these programmes include the Duke of Edinburgh's International Award, mountain climbing, Korean traditional fishing, basic knowledge building program for nationally certified youth workers, field adaptation training of youth activity professionals, and other intensive courses.
