FY2018 “Asian Youth Development and Network Building Program”

Conducted by Nanjo City, Ie Village, and Tokashiki Village, Okinawa

1 Introduction

“The Asian Youth Development and Network Building Program,” hereinafter referred to as “Asian Youth Program”, will be jointly offered by Nanjo City, Ie Village, and Tokashiki Village through organizing “the Executive Committee for Asian Youth Development and Network Building Program”, hereinafter referred to as “executive committee”.

The three municipalities are promoting the regional development by taking advantage of abundant local resources such as nature, history and culture. International tourists are expected to increase more in the future, and the municipalities are seeking to expand the overseas market for the regional specialty products by utilizing the geographical advantage of Okinawa which is located in the center of East Asia. Under such circumstances, globally-competent human resources are needed, and this program helps develop befitted human resources and human network. It also aims to encourages Okinawan youth to build their capacity of contribution to their community in the future, and to attract more international youth travelers to Okinawa to vitalize the community.

2018 program offers participants an opportunity to rediscover regional charm and diverse way of thinking by studying regional challenges. They will experience the nature and culture of Okinawa with colleagues, nurturing global mindset which would motivate them to contribute to their community in the future.

The program will be carried out in English.

2 Participants

As a rule, there will be 2 participants from each of the following 11 countries and regions(hereinafter referred to as “sending country and regions”), for a total of 22 participants.
